DOLLIE DOON.

Words by MAY CAMPBELL.

Music by Robt. W. Edwards.

Author of

UMBRELLA DANCE.
PANDEAN DANCE.
LOVERS CAN NEVER BE FRIENDS.
ETC.

PUBLISHERS:
Thiebes-Stierlin Music Co.
ST. LOUIS, MO.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE
ST. LOUIS SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH
JUNE 9, 1901.

By Permission of Thiebes-Stierlin Music Co., Owners of Copyright.

DOLLIE DOON.

Words by MAY CAMPBELL. Music by ROBT. W. EDWARDS.

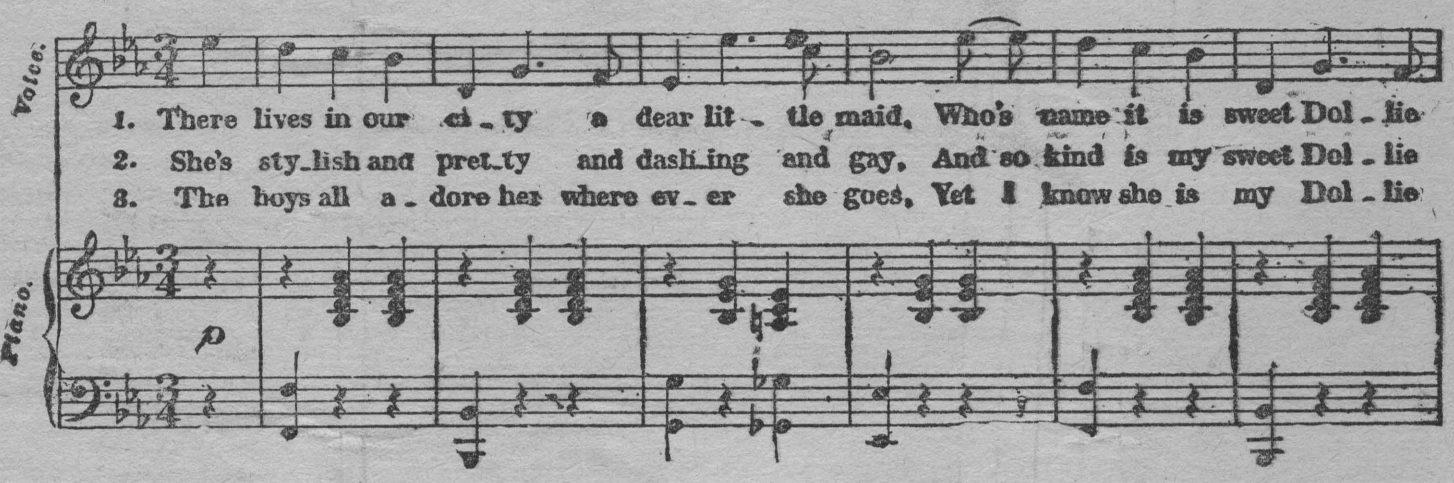
Tempo de Waltz.



Voice.
1. There lives in our ci_ty a dear lit_tle maid, Who's name it is sweet Dol_lie
2. She's sty_lish and pret_ty and dash_ing and gay, And so kind is my sweet Dol_lie
3. The boys all a_dore her where ev_er she goes, Yet I know she is my Dol_lie Piano.
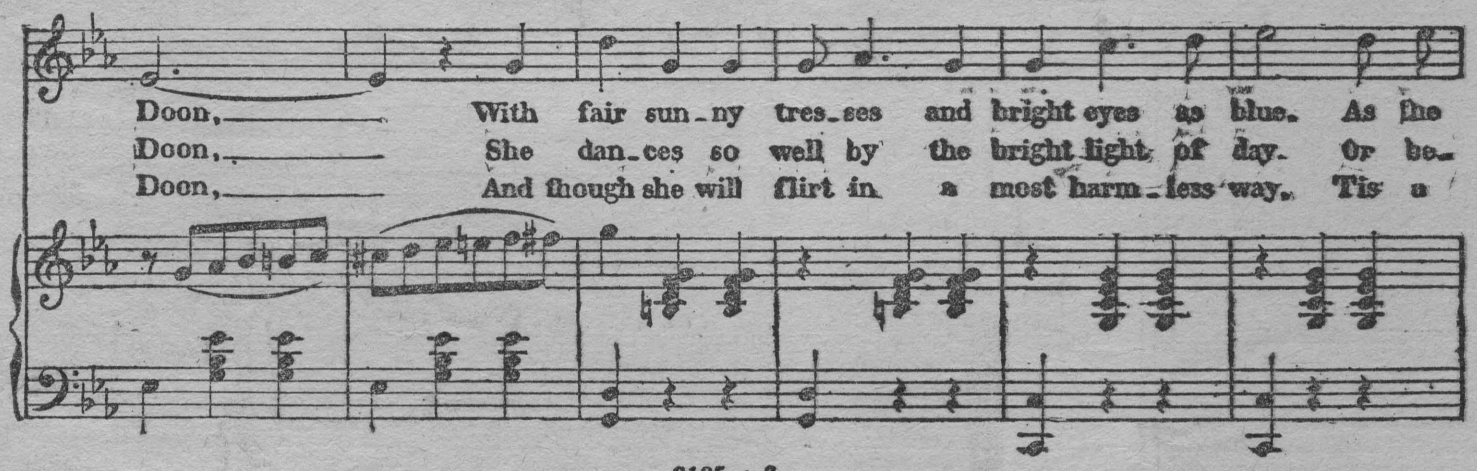
p



Doon, With fair sun_ny tres_ses and bright eyes as blue. As the Doon, She dan_ces so well by the bright light of day. Or be_ Doon, And though she will flirt in a most harm_less way. Tis a

3135 - 3

Copyright MDCCCXCV by Thiebes_Stierlin Music Co.

flow_ers that blos_som in June, How well I re_mem_ber the neath the soft rays of the moon. And when in the lan_ciers she mood that is o_ver quite soon, And when we are mar_ried, as glance of her eye When first on my, vi_sion she fell A look then a dain_ti ly trips, Then all hearts are laid at her shrine, If on_ly they soon we will be, My Dol_lie will flirt_ing give o'er. She'll be my dear blush, then two ru_by lips smil_ing Threw o'er me a sweet mag_ic spell.

knew that to me she is true And that Dol_lie sweet Dol_lie is mine.
wife and the joy of my life Yes my dar_ling my love ev_er more.

REFRAIN.

Dol_lie, Dol_lie, sweet Dol_lie Doon, She is the Girl I a dore, She's my

Dol_lie Dol_lie sweet Dol_lie Doon Who dai_ly I love more and more,

Tell me Dol_lie will we wed soon Noth_ing to me will she say A way she goes dan_cing her bright eyes just glancing My Dol_lie Dol_lie Doon.